Earth Mission

From the book, Dana speaks to Rory:

“Some think that Earth is a planet for learning lessons. What the Ancient Ones say is that if there is a “lesson to be learned on Earth” it is: YOU are amazing, intelligent, a loving being and anything that diminishes your experience as such, is false and entrapping. I also learned that crippled systems must be transformed, all of our reasons for limit must be dissolved and we are the ones to choose a new life and a new world.”

The purpose of Earth life was for Souls of sensitivity and authority to identify societies who had invaded our Divine Families lives eons ago, before time and Earth. Their agendas of domination have contaminated and controlled our lives. With the sensitivity to identify Outsiders came the authority to remove them back to their Homes of origin. The accomplishment of Mission would restore our families to their Divine harmonics.

Original Purpose has been hidden from us. Why? Better to ask the question, "Who benefits?"

The answer, of course, "Those who entrapped, controlled and used the Families for their benefit, the Outsiders." With the Ancient Ones, mission volunteers, whirling in confusion, crippled thinking, finger pointing, and survival, the Outsiders benefited. My invitation to you is,

“Wake up to this Mission. Strengthen your sensitivities, clarify your qualities. Name the domination and greed that surrounds you for what it is, “Outsider values and creations.”

They are not imbalanced members of Human/Divine family. They are living out their agendas in our Home their removal benefits all.

- Reality Statement: I own my place in the Original Earth Mission of Sovereignty and am guided in my assignment.

The Law Of Manifestation

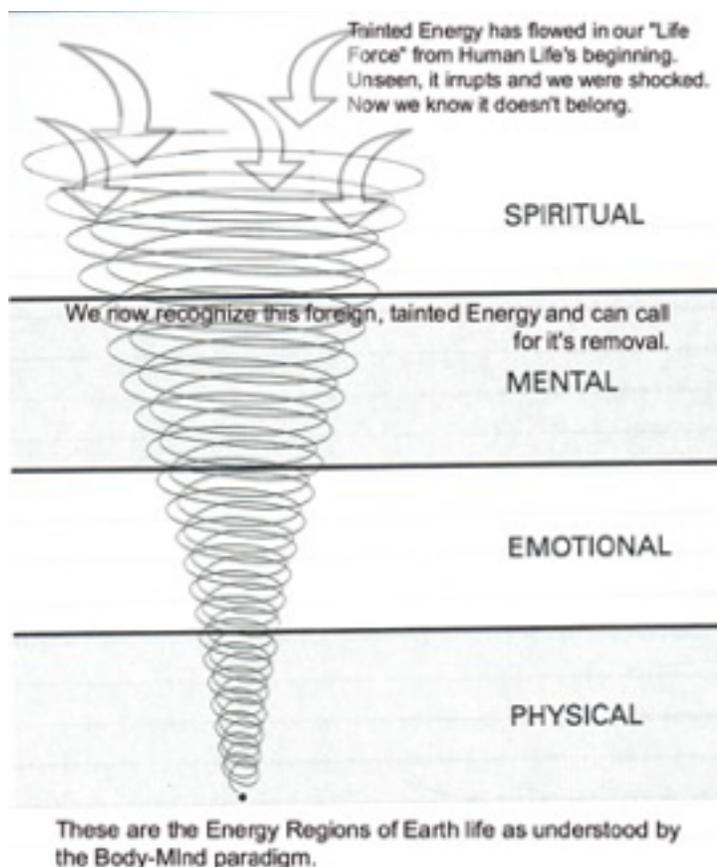

The Law of Manifestation is constant on this planet. Energy patterns/seeds will become a plant, fruit or flower. The fruit and flower will tell you the qualities of the seed. Learn to read the situations in your life this way. If you have an unwanted situation/plant, realize that the 'seed' for that plant exists within your undiscerned energy fields. If you have a situation that sabotages or brings harm, the 'seed' lies within your fields. If you want something new to manifest, you have to weed out the old imprint then plant and nurture a new seed in your energy fields.

“If you want to find the secrets of the universe, think in terms of energy, frequency, and vibration.”

- Nikola Tesla

The Law of Manifestation, the law on this planet, declares that energy component/seeds in conscious or unconscious bodies will cause vibrations reflective of the seed. Just like plants are the reflection of their seed, the manifested form shows the beginning imprint.

For example, if there is trauma storage/seed in the emotional field, energies will slow down to form thoughts of fear which attracts/create situations of trauma in the physical.

The Law Of Personal Choice

The Power of Your Voice

Your experiences are the result of many past experiences and survival concepts of life, of yourself, of possibilities you brought in at birth to heal and to expand. Whether you believe in past lives or not, generations of family members that came before you have handed down codes. They exist within your DNA and impacted your life. Again, not "set in stone".

This lesson is to remind you that the law for this planet is that YOU are the voice for your life. And, the most powerful places to be to change your life are in the Present moment and in a Physical body.

This understanding gives you the flexibility and responsibility to reframe your life for new outcomes.

And so, take the time to evaluate where you are in your life now. Then, choose an area on which you would like to focus.

Divine Community

“Just as important, I know that humanity, the mission volunteers, came together on a common mission. We did not intend to walk this journey using only information physically discerned or abilities socially taught. There is immense help available in the unseen worlds. There are massive Spiritual mission force collaboratives to help Earth and her inhabitants. Those in unseen bodies and worlds must have our voice and sight, and we cannot accomplish the goal of Sovereignty without them.”

We, as Souls, have come from regions beyond this Earth. Communities of loved ones remain in those worlds just as when you travel to exotic places on the planet. During your trip, family and friends stay at home. The same is true for our Earth mission.

Our life force extends through in multiple regions of energy which includes the physical and the unseen. In physical bodysuits, there are very real restrictions and limits. Limits are the nature of physical. Our heritage includes both the seen and unseen worlds. In the unseen, there are Beings of integrity who are holding information for our plan. Their abilities to monitor and guide our journey contains all possibilities. Discounting the unlimited world of the unseen has left humanity functioning within physical constrictions. Like Gerri, those who can access the unseen, are made to feel "crazy," "delusional", "Pollyanna" and are then discounted. Instead of building skills to embrace both worlds, we are encouraged to make sense of our physical lives with very limited views.

On the other hand, many have the assumption that anything that comes from the unseen/Spiritual regions is beyond reproach. Not so. Both worlds require criteria and boundaries for all interactions.

You would never open your home in the middle of a city with a big note that says, "I am away. Anyone welcome. Do what you want. Take what you want." Your home would soon be emptied.

The same can happen if you open yourself to spiritual information; anyone welcome, I am not in charge, take me, direct me, etc. There are beings of integrity who will still wait for your voice of authority, even when you have forgotten you have one. But, there are many in the unseen ready to masquerade, flatter, deceive and use you for their purposes. So, caution is critical when opening to guidance.

The first step is to create Reality Statements as to the qualities and values of your Spiritual teachers. Next, describe the qualities of the experiences you have in their presence.

Reality Statements*: these are suggestions

- My Spiritual teachers, seen and unseen, have the qualities of:
- My Spiritual teachers have the utmost integrity to the law on Earth; Personal
- Choice, those in physical bodies have ultimate authority.
- My communities and relationships vibrate to the harmonics of Good, i.e., love, generosity, respect, joy, etc.

*The Reality Shift process, included in the Healing section, is one that will set your new choices powerfully in place with the assistance of your Spiritual teachers and teams.

Healing - Transforming

Triangle Angelic Grids from Pam notes

Balanced energy vibrations form triangles, the basis of sacred geometric vortexes and building patterns. Healthy triangulated energy causes triangles touching triangles becoming grids of incredible strength!

According to Universal Law for Earth, requests/declarations from those in physical bodysuits require those in Spirit to respond. All TAG work is done under the direction of the individual's Soul with the support of Spiritual teams. So, Triangle Angelic Grids: Those in the Unseen assisting in the restoration of humanity's Soul's grid of Divine Harmonics.

TAG Healing intentions will consist of a series of requests/declarations. Each Matrix creates energy waves that form a sacred geometric field with vibrations unique to the individual's need. This vortex forms from specific commands. For example, one will be declarations to eliminate the dense energy stored within, around and through all vibrational bodies; spiritual, mental, emotional and physical.

Another Matrix will contain commands for activating the Divine DNA, correcting the body's circuitry and re-establishing the spiritual communication center.

Pam's note to self: Speak to Shadow to make sure the requests are complete and ask for whatever additional information is needed. Working with Beings in the unseen we intend to transform energy grids by releasing negative imprints, removing parasitic attachments, and correcting Galactic imbalances. When free from chaos and Outsider attachments, Sovereignty exists in the field. Sovereignty allows vibrations to self-correct to the Soul's Divine

Processes:

You can change your life from what is it to what you want it to be. It is like knocking down a wall, clearing the dust and building a new room from scratch. Building new takes time, new tools, and commitment to BE Restored2YourSoul.

Reality Statements: This is the tool that you will use to choose new outcomes for your life. When used within the Reality Shift, the statements become seeds/ imprints in your energy bodies that will manifest. You may discover what you want new as you examine what you currently have, i.e., patterns of sabotage, discounting in relationships, financial lack, etc. The Statements could come from what you want to be free of or from the dreams that you have always wanted to accomplish.

Reality Shifts: Reality Statements alone, like affirmations, have limited power. When you link them to your Spiritual guides, friends, and teams, their capacity to change the unseen becomes powerful. That is what the Reality Shift Process does.

The basic steps:

1. Create and read a Reality Statement.
2. Say to your Spiritual team, "Please align every aspect of my consciousness and those I love to this reality and experience." pause and breath
3. Ask your Spiritual team, to "TAG, Transform and Remove every energy imprint that would sabotage or prevent this reality and experience." pause and breath
4. Ask your Spiritual team, "Create and download the codes for the Highest Expression of this Reality into my energy bodies." pause and breath
5. Remain aware of any contrary thoughts, feelings, or actions and use the command, TAG and Transform, to declare have old forms be cleared and healed.

Sacred Space: Taking back and designing your space, for your Spiritual work, for your body, your home, your land, your family, your community is where to begin. Using Reality Statements such as:

- My Sacred Space contains the qualities of...
- A Crystal Cocoon of guidance, protection, and inspiration surrounds me.

You could create a place with stones, flowers, candles, etc. to represent and hold the energy.

TAG and Transform: This directive calls the attention of your Spiritual teams to any sensation, feeling or thought that is contrary to the new you are designing. It gives them permission to check out the energy, the old patterns, and use specific TAG directives to heal it. This is how it would look. You are going about your day and have a sensation of fear, a pain in your shoulder, or an old memory of limit. You would immediately say, "Spiritual team. There is .. name the sensation, feeling, or memory. TAG and Transform its cause. Thanks!" You may find some old patterns that will disappear quickly, some take longer. Just keep calling for your Teams to TAG and Transform.

Empath: Being an empath indicates that you have natural abilities to sense vibrations that are invisible to others. That is a gift you choose to bring with you for this lifetime. It also means that you may have felt the toxic energy of Outsiders, the Light energy, the despondency, the confusion, etc. And, the awareness may have begun when you were a very young child. It is vital for everyone, and especially for empaths, to know that their voice is intended to be master. Having tools to become the master of your space, and hold secure boundaries will be critical in your toolbox.

From Pam:

"I know that there will be more to share and so stay tuned!"

Examine Your Mindset

Are You Able to Grow?

Have you struggled with the challenges of life only to be left tired and hopeless?

Do you cringe at the suggestion that you can change your life?

Dr. Carol S. Dweck was amazed at some four years old that she observed very early in her career. Clearly, there were at least two ways of dealing with life going on with these children. Over the years, she has come to identify what she observed as expressions of Mindset and contends that mindset plays a significant role in our lives and ability to succeed.

The hallmark of a fixed mindset is that when there is even a hint of “failure,” they blame, make excuses, discounts or attack any suggestions to improve. They have to live up to an internal sense that they already know everything, they are innately superior. Fixed mindset despises effort, “You ought to have success effortlessly. Otherwise, you are and will always be less than a success.” This sense of self releases one from the task of trying to improve her/himself. It leaves no room for building skills to solve problems.

The growth mindset individual is excited to learn more, especially as it relates to what they love. They know work is needed to reach mastery. Growth individuals understand that going into areas they have never been, making mistakes to learn is the basis of life. Free of the task to continually prove their brilliance, growth mindset individuals are free to go for the things they deeply value and love. They know that one can succeed if they put in the time to learn. A person with a growth mindset is excited to create the actions to expand their world and experience more. They embrace doing something "wrong" or making "mistakes." Praise a child or adult for things they have no control over such as eye color, beauty, even innate gifts can easily lead to a fixed mindset. "You are so pretty." "You are so smart." "You play the piano so beautifully." These can be traps.

When you are praising another, look for the effort that individual has brought to the task. Praise the effort, something the child/adult and yourself did by choice.

"I saw how much commitment it took for you to learn that piano piece so well." "I love the way you bring great colors together with your clothes." "I know you didn't let discouragement stop you kept falling at ice skating rink. Look at how well you skate now!"

Begin with Reality Statements:

- As I move up a skill level in what I love, I become a novice and delight in my mistakes.
- My mistakes are part of the path to expanding my life.
- Mistakes are indications that I am growing.

Grounded To Mother Earth

Our Partner in Earth Mission

The name of the Soul collective that holds space for our mission is Gaia, Mother Earth. There is no time during our walk on the planet when Gaia withholds herself from us. We walk on her surface, lay down in her meadows, run on her paths, swim in her waters.

Her assignment was to provide secure space and hold energy within herself to be brought forth as resources for those on Mission. She is like a massive Mother Ship. There is a reason that we find regeneration in Nature, discover inspiration in Earth's beauty, feel re-balanced in her quiet. The vibrational waves that come from Gaia were designed to provide the Mission force with the material to thrive here. Keeping Humanity busy with survival rather than spending and connecting with nature is another way the Outsiders trap.

Reframe the place that Nature and Mother Earth has in your life. Explore what a relationship with her would look like for you.

Reality Statements:

- I acknowledge the critical relationship I have with the energies of Earth.
- I open my mind and heart to voices that come to me from all forms of Nature.
- I have learned the language of the trees, water, stones, fire and air.

New Directions

Congratulation!

You are magnificent for being willing to try on some new ideas and add new tools to expand your vision and choose new paths.

I hope that you now realize that abilities, situations, are not "set in stone" and you are free, indeed required, to choose what you love, what brings you joy. Then, do all that it takes to transform and remove what constricts you, your space, home, and relationships.

This workbook contains the basic concepts and processes, the first level for Remembering the Mission. See yourself as a gardener. In a garden, there are seeds you consciously plant and plants that grow from seeds planted before you. The plants of constriction, fear, powerlessness, control, domination, and usury are definitely ones to eliminate. When you discover light, ease, and inspiration, nurture the seeds.

Look at your life through new eyes. Watch for your own motivations. Which ones are coming from the love, joy, and excitement of which Pam spoke?

Are you ready, like Rory, to put on your hiking boots and see what is on the top of Pam's mountain? I hope so because the journey will be amazing!

Watch for the next book in this trilogy,
